

Declaration

I the undersigned undergraduate declare under penalty of perjury that my dissertation is my own, original work. The referred printed and electronic bibliography is in line with the international copyright's rules.

I accept that in case of dissertation plagiarism denotes:

- Publishing quotes written word by word without using quotating marks and references
- Using of other authors published thoughts as own thoughts

I the undersigned declare that I understand the meaning of plagiarism. I accept that in case of plagiarism my dissertation will be refused. I declare that binded and electronical versions of my dissertation are the same regarding formats and contents either.

.....
name